

Early Images of Sinclair Radio Laboratories

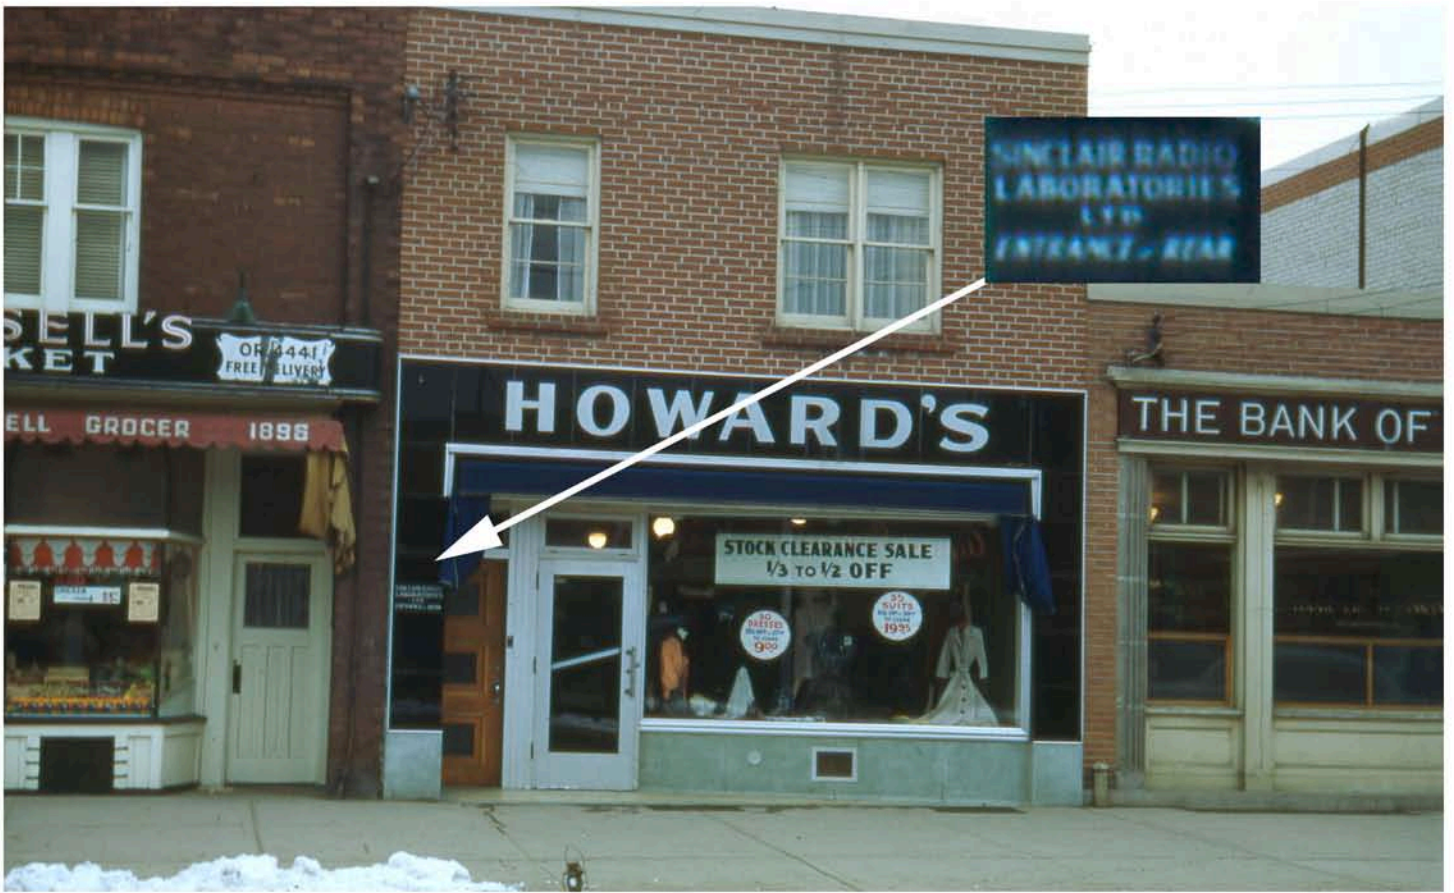

These images are from a set of slides taken by George Sinclair in 1952.

Unknown, George Sinclair & Peter Yachemic in the first business location of Sinclair Radio Laboratories in the basement of 1892 Eglinton Avenue West in Toronto.

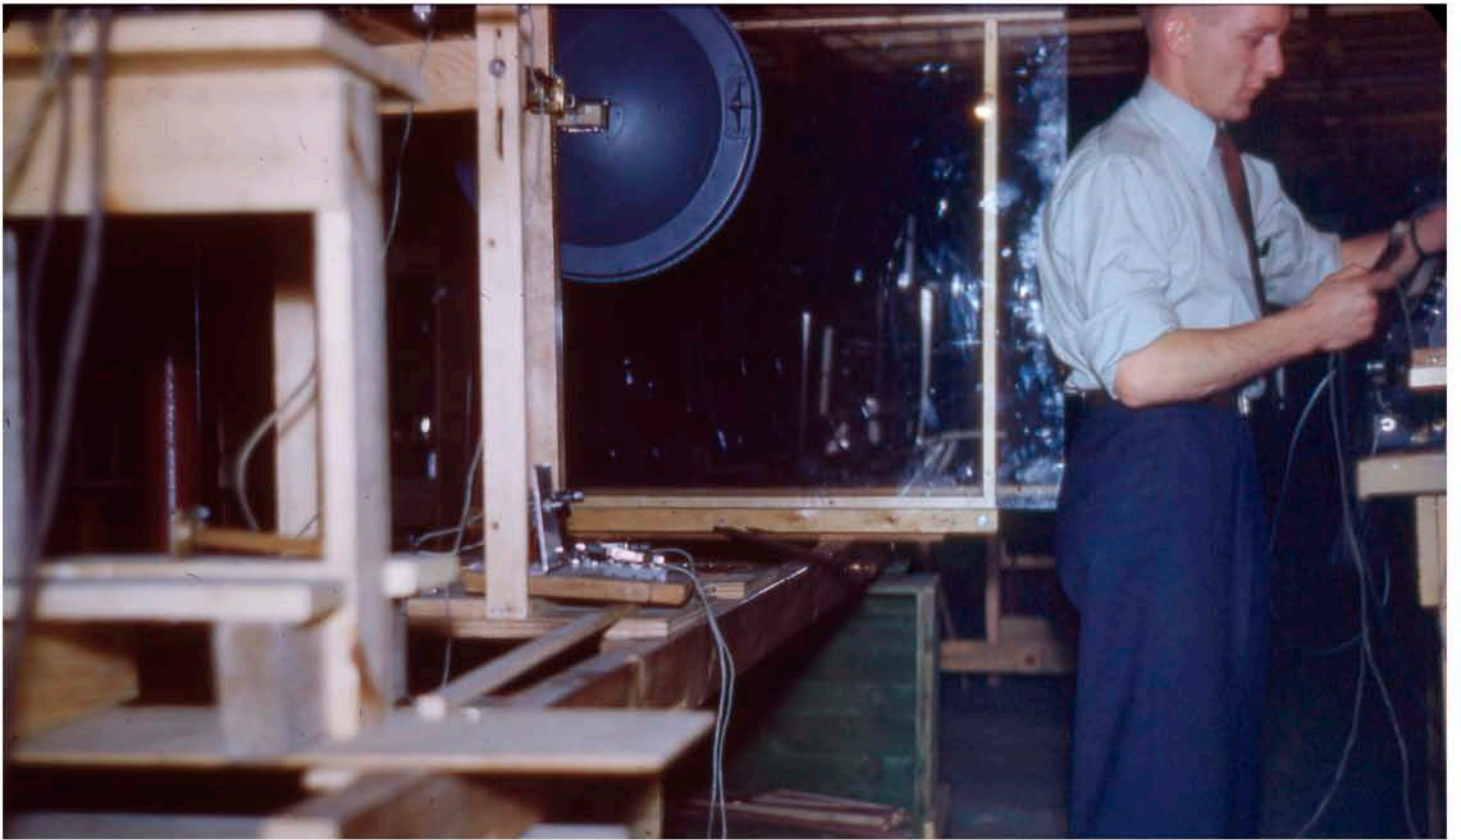

The rear (and only) entrance to SRL, between two garages in the back alley.

1892 Eglinton Avenue West as it exists then, and today.

Some early shots in the shop.

Bill Tilston hard at work.

George Sinclair preparing for the first SRL trade show - and the trade show booth opposite.

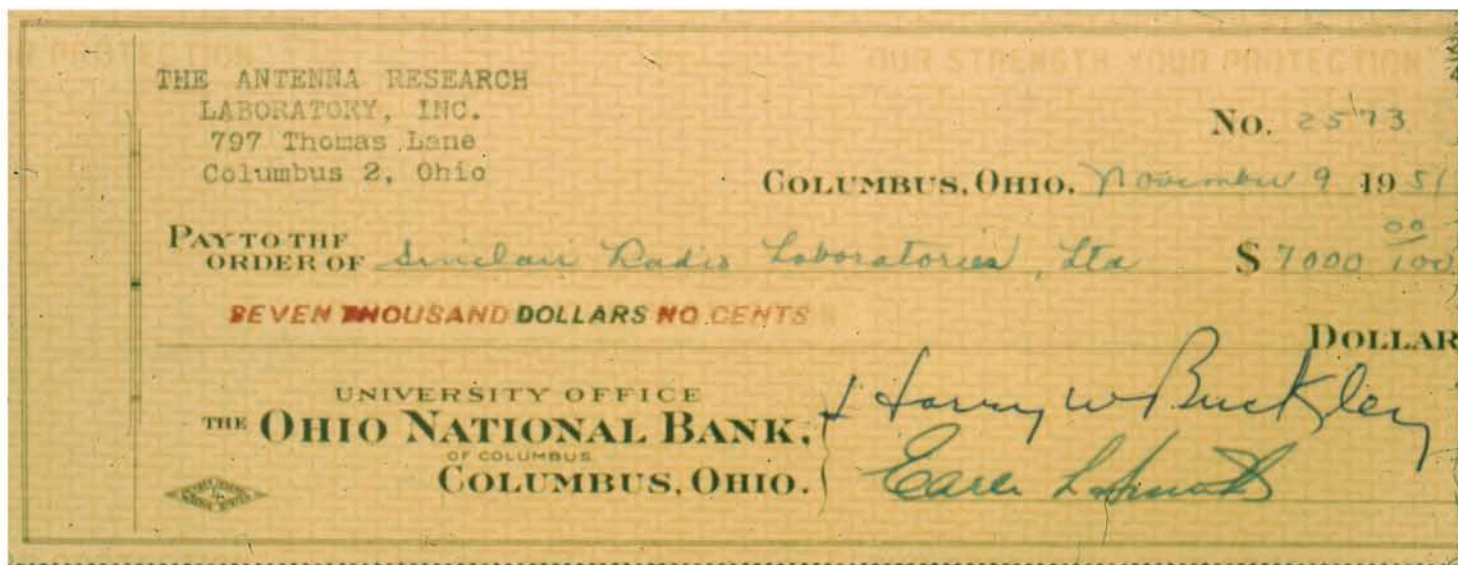

The first Annual SRL CCChristmas Party, at the Sinclair's apartment.

A party game at the first annual SRL Christmas Party, Helen Sinclair in the center, and Mrs. Yachemic standing.

A cheque for the first order, from The Antenna Research Laboratory in Columbus, Ohio.